Lawyers and defense rights have constantly been under threat. In multiple occasions, basic fundamental rights have been -and are- violated. Therefore, lawyers, who represent key figures in defending these rights, are seriously put at risk. This is the reason why, in the light of international mobilizations and pressure by the legal professionals community, the Italian criminal lawyers have decided to stand united towards this critically important issue.

Some famous cases, from the II WW until today, are presented as follows (please refer to the video on youtube hannel endangeredlawyers).

Michael Siegel

Germany, 1933

Jewish lawyer in Munich, he went to the Munich police station to intercede on behalf of a Jewish client. Dr. Michael Siegel was thrown into a basement room at the Munich Police HQ, and severely beaten by a troop of S.A storm troopers. He was then marched through the streets of Munich, barefoot, bleeding and was made to carry a board around his neck with the words: "Ich bin Jude aber ich will mich nie mehr bei der Polizei Beschweren"[I am a Jew but I will never again complain to the Police].

Hans Litten

Germany, 1938

Litten called Hitler as a witness, hoping to expose the Nazi party's deliberate strategy of overthrowing democracy by bringing terror to the streets. Over the next five years, he was held in a succession of notorious concentration camps. He was singled out for especially brutal treatment at the hands of the guards, who knew full well of the Fuehrer's personal antipathy towards him. By February 1938, he took his own life by hanging himself. He was 34.

Angelo Bettini

Italy, 1944
Murdered during a mass killing organized by Nazi-fascist forces.

Serafino Famà

Italy, 1995

Killed by the Mafia at 57. The final court decision (1999) stated: «the murder of mr. Famà was due exclusively to the fair exercise of his defense duties as a lawyer»

Fulvio Croce

Italy, 1977

Murdered by the Red Brigades: «court-appointed lawyers serve the regime, not our interests. Thus, for every initiative they take on our behalf, we will react accordingly»

Teng Biao

China

He has been a vocal supporter of human rights activists. He has been arrested at least twice, in March 2008 and in February 2011.

Guo Feixiong

China

“Barefoot lawyer”, who has worked on several controversial issues to defend the rights of marginalized groups. In 2005 and 2006, human rights groups reported that Guo was taken into custody and beaten on multiple occasions for his human rights advocacy. He was arrested, prosecuted and fined.

Chen Guangcheng

China, 2005-2006

He advocates for women's rights, land rights, and the welfare of the poor. As a result of this lawsuit, Chen was placed under house arrest from September 2005 to March 2006, with a formal arrest in June 2006. On 24 August 2006, Chen was sentenced to four years and three months for "damaging property and organizing a mob to disturb traffic."
Chokri Belaid
Tunisia, 2013
Under Ben Ali’s regime, he worked as a human rights lawyer, and often took part to political court cases. Belaid was shot dead in 2013 (at the age of 48).

Abderraouf Ayadi
Tunisia
Political activist, he spent 6 years and half in prison. He is constantly harassed and prosecuted (interrogatories, surveillance, even kidnapping).

Antonio Trejo
Honduras, 2012
A human rights lawyer who represented peasants in disputes with large land owners. Mr Trejo represented lands rights groups in the Bajo Aguan, a fertile palm oil-producing region. He was shot dead by unknown gunmen after walking outside the church.

Negad El Borai
Egypt
Lawyer and the head of the legal unit at United Group for Law. He has advocated for freedom of expression, assembly and association.

Mahienour el-Massry
Egypt, 2015
On 31 May 2015 the Court of Appeal sentenced Mahienour El-Massry, along with nine activists, to one year and three months imprisonment on charges of, amongst others, “assaulting security forces”. The conviction of El-Massry followed after an incident in March 2013, when she and other lawyers went to Raml police station to provide legal assistance to three activists.
Ramazan Demir

Turkey, 2016

Demir had been charged with “insulting or (…) offending the dignity of a public authority in the performance of his duties”. The charges are based on defense speeches he made during the trial against 44 journalists who are suspected of ties with the KCK.

Ayşe Acinkili (with R.Demir)

In the early morning of 16 March 2016, police raided the houses and offices of nine lawyers in Istanbul, Turkey. The charges are unknown. Allegedly the lawyers are arrested on suspicion of having ties with a terrorist organization.

Spain

Arrested under the generic charge of ‘terrorism’, for having defended clients who are affiliated with the armed faction of ETA. Basque lawyers: Julen Arzuaga (charges dropped in 2008), Aieret Larrarte (acquitted 2009), Iñaki Goioaga Llano (detained for one year and seven months in pre-trial detention, acquitted in 2012), Joseba Agudo Mancisidor (detained for two and a half years, acquitted in 2012), Alfonso Zenon (investigation still pending), Arantza Zulueta, Jon Enparantza and Iker Sarrieg (released on bail, investigation still pending).

Stanislav Markelov

Soviet Union, 2009

Russian Federation Stanislav Markelov was murdered at the age of 34 years because of his work for anti-fascist activists

Sirikan Charoensiri

Thailand, 2016

On 2 February 2016, Sirikan Charoensiri received two summons to appear at the Chanasongkram Police Station to be charged with two offences under the Criminal Code of Thailand: “giving false information regarding a criminal offence” and “refusing to comply with the order of an official”. The charges against her seem to be connected to her having filed a complaint with the police when they proceeded to impound her car and evidence contained therein.
Anwar al-Bunni

Syria

One of the founders of the Syrian Human Rights Association and of a center for the defense of journalists and political prisoners. As a lawyer, al-Bunni was particularly involved in defending people who were prosecuted for expressing their opinions in non-violent ways. Because of his work, al-Bunni has been the target of repressive measures by the authorities. The Damascus Bar Association has repeatedly disbarred al-Bunni.

Reinaldo Villalba

Colombia

He has been a member of the José Alvear Restrepo Lawyers' Collective (CCAJAR) for 18 years. He handles criminal and national litigation, primarily criminal defense and the representation of victims of serious human rights violations. Constantly threatened

Valdênia Aparecida Paulino Lanfranchi

Brazil

Her commitment to human rights has earned Ms Paulino numerous death threats and forced her to leave her country twice. Ms Paulino still receives death threats and was the target of false accusations of breaking ethical rules, in a case where she defended child victims of sexual abuse, voluntarily and free of charge. She is involved in the national campaign to demilitarize the police in Brazil.

Pavel Sapelko

Belarus

With other colleagues, he counseled leaders of the opposition, charged of having caused the mass disorders in December 2010. He was disbarred by the national bar association in March 2011.

David Peña Rodríguez & Karla Micheel Salas Ramírez,

Mexico

Lawyers representing the families of the victims of the uninvestigated assassinations of women in the Campo Algodonero case, also known as Ciudad Juárez femicides. Their action began in 2001, when the bodies of three young women were found in a cotton field after they had been raped and killed. They were confronted with concealed evidence and threats and intimidation towards themselves and their clients.

Nabeel Adib Abdallah
Sudan

On Thursday, May 5, 2016 the National Intelligence and Security Services (NISS) agents raided and continued to broke into the office of prominent lawyer and rights activist Mr. Nabeel Adib Abdallah and arrested several university students. No other information about the arrests, or removal of the property of Mr. Nabeel Adib Abdallah has been provided, nor has information about specific charges been provided.

Namal Rajapakshe & Manjula Pathiraja
Sri Lanka

Defence lawyers who represent victims of human rights violations across Sri Lanka. Because of their work, they have received several death threats. A man armed with a gun, cornered and then threatened Mr Rajapakshe by saying that Mr Rajapakshe and Mr Pathiraja would be killed if they defend any more “unnecessary cases”.
